INVITATION FOR PUBLICATION

The editorial board of the Contemporary Studies journal (published by the University of Tissemsilt / Algeria) has the honor to inform the researchers from Algeria and abroad, that researches to be published in the next issues will be received as following:

** The journal receives researches related to language, literature and criticism in five languages: Arabic, English, German, Spanish and French.

** Researches from Algeria, in Arabic and French, will be received during two periods: the first between the 01st and the 05th of January, the second between the 01st and the 05th of July of each year.

** Researches in English, German and Spanish from Algeria will be received all year long.

** Researches abroad (in Arabic, English, German, Spanish and French) will be received all year long.

The editorial board of the journal requests from the researches authors to take the following measures:

- Commit to completely using the template of the journal, downloadable on the journal page in the platform, otherwise the article will be refused for the form.
- Researchers whom researches have been primary accepted (articles accepted for assessment) should send a document certifying that the title, the abstract and the key-words of the research have not been automatically translated using Google translation, but translated by a certified translator who signs and put his/her personal seal in the document, otherwise the researches will not be sent to reviewers.
- Insert the title, the abstract and the key-words of the researches in two languages (the language of the article and English, in the research text in Word format as well as in the suitable cases when sending the article via the ASJP), except articles in English whom authors should use only English.
- Compulsorily indicate the name and the contact details of the second author via the platform.
- References used in the research should be the same as the references indicated in the platform in case the research is definitively accepted.
- When the article is accepted with reservations, the researcher should observe a period not exceeding 15 days from the date of sending him/her the reservations, in order to make modifications during this period and send his/her article again.
- The journal refuses to bring forward the publication date of its issues whatever the reasons are (the first issue is published on the 02nd of June, while the second one is published on the 02nd of December of each year).
